NAIDOC WEEK

Celebrated in Raine House – Zarie Nai and her extended family

Mum (Ursula), Dad (Motulu), Brother (Tilarva), Cousins x 3, Grandmother (Aunty Laura Sabatino) and Aunty Beatrice Sailor

Ursula and Motulu gifted Raine House and Ascham with a wooden hand carved sculpture of a Dhari, Torres Strait Island ceremonial headdress and drum worn by their warriors.

“If you’re struggling at school, with your education, with anything, you take that spirit and you just get back up, keep going” Ursula Nai

Tiarn Wilesmith, Boarding Assistant and First Nations Mentor conducted weaving, while Aunty Beatrice lead traditional dancing and singing, Aunty Laura made delicious TI scones!
